MICHAEL F. EASLEY
GOVERNOR

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT WEEK

2007

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, a skilled, competent and well-prepared workforce is essential for a strong state and national economy; and

WHEREAS, building an integrated customer-focused system to educate, train, and retrain North Carolina's youth and adults requires a strong partnership between public education, employment and training agencies and the business community; and

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Commission on Workforce Development is responsible for overseeing the coordination and integration of the range of federal, state and local workforce development programs and has worked together with state and local partners to establish major workforce development systemic changes to meet the education, training, and employment needs of our citizens and businesses; and

WHEREAS, it is the overarching mission of Workforce Development to meet the needs of North Carolina businesses by preparing an able and ready workforce and to enhance the skills and job readiness of all North Carolina citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 15-19, 2007, as "WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT WEEK" in North Carolina in recognition of the efforts and accomplishments made by the public workforce development system in conjunction with the private sector to ensure that North Carolina's citizens compete and succeed in the workplace of the 21st century.
